

PRESS RELEASE

JEWISH DAY SCHOOLS CELEBRATE A CENTURY OF JEWISH EDUCATION IN WINNIPEG

March 25, 2008 - Please join us on Sunday, March 30, 2008 for a gala evening at The Fairmont Winnipeg as we Celebrate 100 Years of Jewish Education in Winnipeg.

Gray Academy of Jewish Education is continuing the traditions pioneered by the builders of Talmud Torah, I. L. Peretz Folk School, Ramah Hebrew School and Joseph Wolinsky Collegiate and proudly proclaims that it is the central gathering place for excellence in education and the development of future Jewish leaders.

Gray Academy is proud to provide the finest Jewish and Secular education for the next generation of Jewish leaders in our community; the commitment to continually enhance our students' educational experience is directly related to the generous support of our families, friends, grandparents, Alumni and the broader community

To complement the recognition of this century milestone we are raising funds to enhance the overall program in Judaic Studies and Technology. Funds raised at the gala will establish a new Technology Fund to purchase a new mobile laptop lab, interactive Smart Boards, LCD projectors and software, and provide professional training for our faculty.

Earlier this year, we dedicated a new spiritual space in our school to facilitate Jewish learning in an interactive setting. The success of this Beit Midrash shows us the importance of enhancing our Judaic Studies program to nurture the souls of our children and to keep Judaism relevant in their daily lives.

Please join us at the 100 Year Young Gala:
