TECHNOLOGY ACCEPTABLE USE

The rules for using technology are intended to make the network more reliable and consistent for the users who depend on it daily. They are intended to minimize the burden of administering the network so that more time can be spent using the network for the educational purposes for which it is intended. Any attempt to circumvent security provisions is considered improper and will be viewed as a violation of the acceptable use policy.

The acceptable use of technology requires that users:

- Log in using only their own identification.
- May only run software that is supplied by the school.
- May only use the scanner, camera, colour printer or other devices attached to the network with permission and under the supervision of Gray Academy staff.
- Do not access or transmit, either internally or externally, any materials that may be considered pornographic, demeaning or libellous.
- Do not access any unauthorized CHAT servers.
- Understand that system administrators have the right to access, view, or delete any files from the network including electronic mail.
- Malicious use of the network to develop programs that harass other users, infiltrate a computer or computer system and/or damage the software components of the computer or computer system is prohibited.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Gray Academy of Jewish Education is dedicated to the central Jewish teaching that study and ethical behaviour are inseparable, each enhances the other. Gray Academy strives for a safe environment where students and staff learn, grow and work together in a respectful and cooperative manner. When in class, on school trips, or a school related activity, the school expects students to have self-respect and respect for others.

We ask students to ensure that respect, safety and cooperation become an integral part of Gray Academy by adhering to the following.

1. Come prepared to class, both mentally and physically.
2. Actively participate in class, bringing materials required, completing assignments and working to the best of their ability.
3. Demonstrate appropriate personal behaviour and use of respectful language.
4. Respect the rights/property of others.
5. Solve conflicts in a peaceful manner.
6. Avoid behaviour that impairs yours and other students educational achievement.
7. Promote positive behaviour through the avoidance of all types of violent acts (hitting, shoving, kicking, playfighting, etc.)
8. Exhibit behaviour that avoids all forms of intimidation, harassment, racism and discrimination.
9. Respect and appreciate multi-cultural differences.
